

Instructions for Using Glass Medals

Producer: WINMED

1. Purpose of Medals

Glass medals are elegant and unique awards that are perfect for occasional, sports, or commemorative awards. Thanks to the possibility of personalization, such as by printing or engraving, these medals give events a unique character and prestige.

2. Instructions for Using the Medals

2.1. Storage

- 2.1.1. Store medals in a dry place, away from moisture to avoid damage to the glass surface.
- 2.1.2. Protect medals from direct sunlight, which can cause printing to fade or colors to fade.
- 2.1.3. Avoid areas with large temperature fluctuations that can cause cracking or other damage to the glass.

2.2. Cleaning

- 2.2.1. Clean the medals with a soft, dry microfiber cloth to remove dust and fine dirt.
- 2.2.2. For heavier soiling, use a damp cloth with mild detergent, avoiding excessive contact with the print.
- 2.2.3. Do not use cleaning agents containing caustic substances, alcohol or abrasives that may damage the glass surface.

2.3. Service

- 2.3.1. Avoid strong impacts that can cause glass to chip or crack.
- 2.3.2. Carry medals carefully to prevent scratches or damage.

3. Warnings

- 3.1. A medal made of glass is a fragile material. Be careful when handling and using it.
- 3.2. Glass items may have sharp edges. Avoid direct contact to prevent cuts.
- 3.3. Keep product out of reach of small children.
- 3.4. Dropping the product may damage the surface or pose a danger to those using it.
